FIRST CIRCUS OF SEASON HERE AND SO IS CROWD TO SEE IT

Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows Arrive From Indianna After Delay

TENT MEN ARE PROFICIENT

Work of Putting up Canvas Houses Interesting to Watch—Parade Big Feature of Today Noon—Two Shows Booked for Today.

Traveling in three sections and carrying an array of wonders and a galaxy of some of guaranteed best performers in the whole wide world, the Great Hagenbeck and Wallace Circus arrived in town this morning and started putting up tents for the two big performances this afternoon and evening. The show came from Indiana where, it is said, the advance sale it played to large crowds Friday.

The Hagenbeck and Wallace Circus contains all that one expects to find with the "largest shows of the world." The menagerie is one of the features of the combination, owing to the fact that Carl Hagenbeck, during his animal training days gathered together one of the largest assortments of wild animals in the world and has since joining in the circus business with Wallace, retained them.

Always one of the leading features with a circus is nothing more or less than its tent building. To view the proficiency of tent men in getting the immense canvas houses erected and everything in shape for a monstrous show in a few hours' time is indeed a revelation. It is a daily occurrence with a circus however so it seems to come natural.

The parade naturally is the big feature of the morning. According to agreement in this instance the parade did not start until after 11 o'clock.

Two shows are booked for today, the first at 2 and the second at 8 o'clock. According to early indications both shows will be attended by large crowds, as hundreds of visitors are here from other points and as all of the large mills here are having a half holiday.

CHARLEROI TEACHER EXPLAINS READING METHODS AT AVALON

Miss Edith Woodhall Demonstrates System to Teachers—Charleroi Work Becoming Noted.

Miss Edith Woodhall, principal at the Ninth street school building was in Avalon, a suburb of Pittsburg on Friday to give a demonstration to the teachers of the Avalon schools of the method of reading taught in the Charleroi schools. From Avalon Miss Woodhall went to New Kensington and Parnassus to explain the method.

Lately Charleroi has gained quite a reputation with its teaching in the lower grades. Recently Miss Woodhall was called to Cincinnati, Ohio, to give a demonstration of the system in use here.

MOTHER'S DAY TO BE OBSERVED

Tomorrow Date for Honoring Motherhood—Wearing of Flowers the Custom

CHURCHES ARRANGE PROGRAMS

Mother's Day will be generally observed tomorrow in Charleroi, as it will in every city, town and hamlet in the United States and even in other lands. Though a recent institution it has become a widely observed date. Locally churches will take up the celebration and there is hardly a church in Charleroi but which will pay especial honor to motherhood.

Annually the second Sunday of May is observed as Mother's Day. The thought of setting aside one day in the year to be particularly devoted to one's mother was first suggested by Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia, who founded the Mother's Day International Association to provide the necessary organized support for the fostering of the movement. The Mother's Day flower is the carnation, though the wearing of other flowers has become just as symbolic.

In the churches the observance of the day will take different forms, but special sermons in nearly every denomination will be preached. Some churches will have special programs by children and others, and among these will be the First Baptist church which has arranged a special program of readings, responsive readings and so forth, while an automobile has been secured to use in getting mothers to church.

PARKING SPACE FOR BABY BUGGIES NEW INNOVATION

A baby buggy garage is the latest. Manager R. S. Coyle has erected that sort of a garage, arranging parking space in a neat structure at one side of his theatre. Baby buggies there will be watched and the service will cost nothing. 282-t

TOO MUCH PROSPERITY CAUSE OF SHIFTING

Employers in Monongahela Valley Have More to Contend With Than Just Labor Trouble—Boys Close Down Part of Factory by Going Fishing

Employers of men in the Monongahela valley are having more than mere labor troubles to deal with these days. One of the biggest sources of annoyances comes from their dealing with what might be classed as a shifting population.

It is like this: A man gets a job in a glass factory doing day work of an unskilled sort. In a day—in some actual instances an hour—he hears there is a better job in a steel mill and to the steel mill he goes. From there he drifts elsewhere always to a better job, as he thinks. This is an everyday occurrence in the Monongahela valley and it was largely to correct the evil and to hold their men that pay at raises by various industries recently.

All the glass factories are suffering from the shifting class of laborers. Boys are affected by the general prosperity also. In a Charleroi factory the other day, as an example, a boy employe suggested to another that they go fishing. Within a few minutes a party of about 15 boys were on their way fishing and a portion of the factory where they were employed was forced to close down.

FUNERAL OF TRAGEDY VICTIM HELD FRIDAY

Attended by close to 500 friends the funeral of Miss Mary Allison, the young woman who was killed in an automobile accident on Lincoln avenue extension Wednesday morning was held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Allison of 305 Oakland avenue. Rev. John R. Burson, pastor of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church, where Miss Allison holds her membership, conducted the obsequies. His address was notable.

Interment took place in the Charleroi cemetery, with the pallbearers, Alex. Hudspith, Howard Vernom, George Garrett and William Fletcher.

IMPORTANT COAL DEAL IS PUBLIC THIS WEEK

The most important deal made public this week was a sale by the Pittsburg Coal company to the Clairton Land company of 192 acres of surface and coal in the borough of Wilson and adjacent thereto, along the Monongahela river for $301,423. This purchase, it was unofficially stated, is for the purpose of supplying coal in part to the plant of the Carnegie Steel company at Clairton and possibly for the by-product coke oven plant that is now under construction at that place.

BODY OF ALBERT HALL RECOVERED FROM RIVER

Hall was 24 years of age and vived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hall, one sister, Miss Ella and two brothers, William and Alvin. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at the Yohe mortuary chapel with interment in the Monongahela cemetery.

BROTHER OF LOCAL MAN AMONG DEAD AT VERDUN

D. A. Schmitz of Fallowfield avenue received the News Friday that his brother, Alfred Schmitz, of the German army had been killed in battle at Verdun. No details have been received.

The death of Schmitz must have occurd in the forepart of March, as the letter of notification to his brother here was dated March 16. The notification was in the form of a card. It is believed a letter had been removed by the censor from the envelope containing the official notice of death.

Schmitz a lieutenant in the bodyguard of the infantry of the Grand Duke of Hessen. He was 23 years old and had been engaged in the terrific fighting at Verdun.

ORDINANCES CONSIDERED BY COUNCIL AT THEIR MEETING

STICKERS TO BE USED BY DEMS TO NOMINATE MEN FOR ASSEMBLY

Former Burgess George W. Risbeck Joe T. S. Cowan and E. C. Vester Candidates Selected.

Stickers will be used by Democrats at next Tuesday's election to nominate three candidates to assembly. They have agreed upon former Burgess George W. Risbeck of Charleroi, Joe T. S. Cowan of Roscoe and E. C. Vester of Washington as their candidates and will vote for them where there is no other preference. Their nomination looks certain and the fight for recognition will come at the general election next fall. The ballots contain no names of candidates for assembly, the leading Democrats of the county having failed in their efforts to induce any representative men to run.

EXPECT CLOSED SEASON ON DEER

Action Anticipated Because of Westmoreland County Instructions

PETITIONS ARE DULY FILED

In view of the action by Dr. Joseph Kalbfus state game commissioner, this week in closing the season in Westmoreland county for two years on deer, wild turkey, quail and ringnecked pheasants, members of the Fayette county Wild Life League and other sportsmen are anticipating a decision shortly from the commissioner as to the petition presented from Fayette county in favor of closing the season on deer there for the next two years.

Recently 36 deer were released from the Seaton game preserves in Wharton township, Fayette county. The petition, signed by 700 residents of the county, urged that these deer be given a chance to propagate in the to the sportsman's rifle. Unless the commissioner closes the season these deer may be hunted this coming fall.

Petitions in favor of the closing were circulated in Uniontown, Connellsville, Onioplye, Fairchance and along the rural routes. Most of the deer released from the Seaton preserves are reported as doing finely. Two of the animals have been brought up in distress near Connellsville, however and it is doubtful whether they will again be in a condition to be liberated. The animals in the Connellsville section, it is thought, were released too near the farming section.

Two Finally Passed on the Question of Taxes and Their Collection

CONTRACTORS TILE BOND

Brooks & Cornish Guarantee Work—Pole Trouble Taken up And Street Committee is Given Charge of Matter—Much Business Transacted.

Four ordinances were considered by council Friday evening at their regularly adjourned meeting with all members present and President D. R. Duvall in the chair. Two were finally passed. One was that fixing the annual tax rate caring for the bonded indebtedness of the borough and to meet other requirements. The other was to regulate tax appeals. An ordinance re-establishing the grade of Fourth street from Shady avenue to Oakland avenue was taken up and passed on first reading. A grade ordinance establishing the grade of Rose alley from Cherry alley to Lincoln avenue, this being the alley directly back of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church, was taken up.

The bond of Brooke & Cornish, who are now engaged in grading work on different streets preparatory to beginning the work of paving was accepted. The bond is for $10,000.

R. J. Whitehead addressed council relative to an entertainment or show to be held at the baseball grounds on July 4 for the purpose of raising funds for the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, asking council to free the hospital of the necessity of paying license. Council granted the desired permission.

Representatives of the Charleroi Telephone company were present to confer with council in regard to moving their telephone pole from the corner of Meadow avenue and Second street, as previously requested. It was explained that the pole had been located there in accordance with instructions from a former borough engineer. Council placed the matter in the hands of the street committee.

Frank Riva was present to complain about the condition of his property on Crest avenue at Second street. The accounts and claims committee was instructed to take charge of the matter.

Council took up the matter of raising a house belonging to people by the name of Leonard on Crest avenue near Third street. The accounts and claims committee was notified to do in the matter what is thought wise.

Councilman H. L. Swickey explained to council that Garbage Collector Harry Perry had agreed to do his garbage hauling before 9 o'clock in the morning and after 10 at night if released from paying his rental and in the condition that he was given $5 credit per month. Council did not look favorably on the the idea.

A complaint was received from bad conditions caused by surface water on Blythe alley near Eighth street. The street commisisoner was instructed to look after the matter.

MILITANT STUDENTS.

Harvard [illegible] military instruction and training [illegible] and business [illegible] Sutawney Spirit. [illegible] regiment numbering [illegible] and commanded by a [illegible] army officer. It starts with [illegible] talion of several hundred students formed for the purpose of [illegible] such military instruction as they could without interfering with their studies. They hoped thus to be better prepared to serve the country in case of need than if they had no military knowledge or training at all. But enthusiasm was so great that the plan naturally asumed much larger proportions and now a full course in military science is offered.

Other colleges and universities are showing the same keen and practical interest in military preparedness and are hastening to do their share in this nation-wide movement. All this is being done in cooperation with the War Department. The plan is to train the men in field service, engineering and sanitation. Regular army officers will instruct them and it is proable that most of them will continue the training received during the college term in the training camps this summer.

In this way the War Department hopes to recruit a corps of 50,000 officers to be used in a volunteer army. Of course, the training given in the colleges will not turn out fullfledged officers, but it will turn out men well started toward becoming officers.

The whole military movement in the college is prompted by a genuine patriotism that means much for our national preparedness, in spite and unity as well as in concrete efficiency.

The average man doesn't have to do much harking to hark back to his circus days, since a circus is more or less of an annual attraction here and since the average man never misses one. Outside of a certain individuality and original tone each big tented aggregation maintains, circuses are pretty much alike. Of course there are a few things done in a new way each year, but the old and tried things remain year after year the most popular. For instance who would not laugh at the clown who regularly year after year clouts a baseball into the heavens and loses it, while the catcher takes a nap before attempting to catch it, or who would not enjoy the usual sort of trapeze performance or bareback riding or the hundreds of odd things that keep one twisting to see. It is not altogether for the newness nor the novelty of the entertainment that one goes to the circus. Its fun to be with the crowd and fierce to be alone on circus day, so everybody goes and enjoys the show. The reason a circus exists is to furnish entertainment and it fills the bill.

Several citizens next Tuesday will be deprived of exercising their rights as such because they have been neglectful in the payment of their taxes. When they are refused a ballot at the polls, if they go so far as to ask for one, they should consider it a lesson. Every man should pay his taxes. If he does not he loses both his moral and legal claim to citizenship, as it is entirely proper that he should.

Out in Chicago a city that judging from recent happenings is endeavoring to gain a reputation for its culture and refinement, a doctor discovers gossip disease and divorce is due to coffee drinking. And the worst of it is that a number of people are going to believe him until another faddist arises to blithely announce that coffee drinking is an insurance to health and longevity. Faddists do more harm to the human race than all the coffee we will ever drink.

As it is time to act about spring cleaning, so it is time to talk about summer comfort outside of the continual round of pleasure we naturally obtain from swatting the pesky fly. There is one little summer inovention that would add about as much as anything we can think of to the sum total of our earthly happiness, and that s a little more generous street sprinkling. As it frequently happens with a good thing, we have just had about enough of this to make us greedy for more. Of course that is the way with temporal blessings; but three times a day during the hot season wouldn't be too many for sprinklnig the blistered streets.

"The men who won't help the movement on the ground that they are too busy with other things," said Mr. Bartel, "should remember Uncle Ned of West Manayunk.

"A stranger to Manayunk watched Uncle Ned fishing in Rudolph's dam. For nearly an hour he watched the old man and not once was the line pulled up.

"'Do you think there are any fish in that dam?' the stranger asked.

"'No, sah! Ah knows dey hain't,' said Uncle Ned, with an amiable smile.

"Your salary," said the manager of the film company to the star he was trying to sign up to a long contract, "will be one million dollars per week."

"That listens good," said the actor "but how much are you going to pay me?"

The teacher of a small class of children recently gave a physiology lesson on the bones of the body. The time to ask questions had come.

"Who will tell me what the backbone is?"

The question was a poser and no one ventured to reply.

Finally the teacher detected a gleam of hope in Sammy's face and smiled encouragingly at him.

"Well, Sammy?"

"The backbone is a long, straight bone. Your head sits on one end and you sit on the other," answered Sammy.

ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR DISTRICT DELEGATE

Elmer I. Phillips candidate for district delegate to the Republican National Convention was born in New Castle and has resided there all his life. He served six years in the New Castle City Councils, was a member of the State Senate 1905-1909 and declined to be a candidate to succeed himself. More recently he was a member and president of the New Castle School Board for four years.

On graduating from college he studied law and practiced this profession for several years but discontinued practice to become identified with the manufacturing interests of his own city, first with the manufacture of window glass and later with the manufacture of portland cement. He and his associates were successful pioneers in that business in New Castle.

He has always been a Republican but while in the State Senate and in the rank he has always been resentful of any control except reason and the best interests of the party.

In Lawrence county he is being supported by regular Republicans, the Republican official organization and the independents.

He regards the success of the party [illegible] his best endeavors to allay the [illegible] which divided the party four years ago and nominate a candidate for president who will unite the party.

He regards the success of the party and what it stands for as paramount to that of any individual. 252-tf

TANLAC STORIES FROM PITTSBURG REALLY AMAZING

Harry Sellars, Well-Known Railroad Man, Praises Remedy Highly.

Tanlac, the celebrated new preparation that is now being introduced for the first time here, is the most successful proprietary medicine ever before distributed in America. In thirty states of the Union, millions of residents are now taking the master medicine and expressing an abiding faith in its remarkable powers over stomach, liver,kidney and catarrhal affections.

The astonishing success of Tanlac in Pittsburg, where it is making the record-breaking sales of more than 1,000 bottles a week, is a striking example of the enormous demand for the premier preparation. Pittsburg, too, is known the world over for its conservative citizens and only unusual merit can bring forth such high approval from her residents.

The stories of Tanlac's success in Pittsburg are amazing. Scores of merchants, bankers, professional men, manufacturers and the highest class of mechanics and laborers as well as innumerable women, have come forward to recommend Tanlac for what it has done for them.

Harry C. Sellars, who has been train caller at the Pennsylvania railroad station in Pittsburg for twenty-five years and who is known to almost every man, woman and child in Western Pennsylvania says:

"I have suffered for the past 10 years with stomach trouble. At times it was so painful that I could hardly stand it.

"I decided to try Tanlac and I must now say that Tanlac has certainly surprised me. The soreness has all gone out of my stomach. I now enjoy my meals and feel fine. I am going to continue taking Tanlac, as I feel sure that I have at least, found what I need to cure me completely and permanently. I can sincerely recommend Tanlac and I hope all my friends who are now suffering as I was will give it a trial for I believe it will help them too."

Tanlac, the "Master Medicine" referred to, is now sold here by Pipers

LIGHT BEARERS' BAND ENJOYS CHINESE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins of Washington avenue entertained the Light Bearers Band of the First Presbyterian church at a "Chinese" party Friday evening in honor of their daughter Faith. About forty guests were present in Chinese costume and spent the evening playing Chinese games, with the assistance of Mrs. Whipkey, patroness of the Band. Mrs. Jenkins, assisted by Mrs. Nicholson served a delicious "Chinese" luncheon to the little guests, who sat on the floor, "tailor" fashion and applied their chop-sticks to the rice and other dainties with great delight and surprising dexterity. The next party will be given by Elma Hepler.

HEAVY DAMAGE WROUGHT BY MEADOWLANDS. FIRE

General Store of Penn Mercantile Company Destroyed With Damage Amounting Upwards of $20,000—Cause of Conflagration Unknown

A loss that it is reported will total about $20,000 was caused by fire which early this morning destroyed the large general store of the Penn Mercantile company, a subsidiary concern of the Pittsburg Coal company, located at Meadowlands.

Fire in the big structure was discovered about 1 o'clock and in less than an hour it was practically in ruins and all the contents had been consumed as well.

Efforts to stop the progress of the flames were futile. The volunteer fire about the building and an hour or moned from their beds had practically no equipment to combat the fire which had secured a great headway by this time

At midnight there was no sign of fire about the buildin and an hour or so later it was discovered in flames.

A general stock was carried in the store, groceries, clothing, meat, furniture and merchandise.

J. J. Jones, of Thayer street, Washington, manager of the store, said this morning the loss would be about $20,000 He was unable to tell how the fire could have gained a start.

With the arrival this week of two cars from Washington state, loaded with lumber and material for the construction of the new tipples at the Black Diamond mine immediate beginning of rebuilding work is indicated. It is understood that work will be started on the building of the tipples atonce and that in a short time more material will be on hand. Six other cars loaded with lumber are on the way, having been shipped at the same time and this means that within a few days practically all the material will be on hand for the construction work.

The work of building the power plant east near Eldora is progressing satisfactorily and it is expected that by the time it is completed the work on thetwo tipples, a river and a railroad tipple will be well under way.

STRENGTH SHOWN IN CANTATA PRODUCTION

High School Performers Appear in Second Night's Presentation of Cantata "Queen Esther."

That the musical talent of high school is well up to the handling of pretentions productions was fully demonstrated Friday night when the cantata, "Queen Esther" was given its second night's performance. The cantata was capably staged and sung under the able direction of Prof. I. T. Daniel who has had the high school folk at work for weeks preparing.

In itself the cantata is a big thing for trained voices to attempt and to bring out its strength requires undisputed ability. To say that the high school singers did well is simply to state a fact.

Choruses were pleasing and the solo work on the whole showed skill. There were naturally strong and naturally weak places but on the whole good work was done. Especial strength was shown by the King, a role assumed and sung by Russell Carl.

The cantata is probably the most pretentious offering ever attempted by local school talent and it is doubtful if it will be surpassed in years to come in execution. Prof. Daniel's work in direction was notable. Accompaniments were ably played by Miss Mary Welch.
